DAILY RECORD FROM WEST SIDE

NOTES OF INTEREST IN AND ABOUT WARRENTON—TOWN BEING PAINTED—FAMOUS OLD MORRISON CHURCH.

WARRENTON, Ore., April 24.—The buildings in Warrenton have begun to receive the care and attention of painters. Mr. Pagunen is having his house repainted and when that job is finished work is to be done on the new buildings, which are now nearly completed. The old Oregon Mills Company are having their entire structures painted. Both above mentioned properties are close to the railroad, and their clean neat appearance should give a favorable impression to passengers passing by on the trains. Other householders are discussing the advisability of having their houses painted in the near future, while a few of them have already arranged to have the work done.

An earnest request to go down to Morrison Church and give a repetition of their Easter exercises, next Sunday week, has reached the teachers and scholars of the Presbyterian Sunday school, of Warrenton. It is understood the people at Morrison intend making the visit from the school here the means of inaugurating a Sunday school at their church. As an historic building the church at Morrison is of interest, for, according to authentic information, it is the oldest church west of the Rocky mountains. For this reason alone the place is well worthy of a visit and it is hoped a goodly number will journey there to enjoy the proposed special service. A definite announcement will be made later.

F. G. Kelly has returned from Westport, Ore., where he has been inspecting his recently acquired shingle mill. He states the alterations are nearly completed and expects the plant will be working in a few days.

C. Hurley, a business man of Portland, is in town.

Dr. G. Bachner, of Roseburg, left yesterday for San Francisco, where he is going to spend a week or so with his brother who resides in the Bay City. His sister, Mrs. Hansbrough, accompanies him as far as Portland.

The following were among Astoria's visitors from Warrenton yesterday: Miss Inez E. Deane, Miss C. E. Munson, Mrs. H. McCredie and family, Mrs. C. Snyder, Mrs. Pauldhaus, and C. White.

The Price of Health.

"The price of health in a malarious district is just 25 cents; the cost of a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Ella Slavton of Nolan, Ark. New Life Pills cleanse gently and impart new life and vigor to the system. 25c. Satisfaction guaranteed at Chan Rogers, Druggist.

HOW TO AVOID APPENDICITIS.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.
